Award: D&I Spirit Award

Submission Deadline: December 29, 2022

Email forms to tellus@princeton.edu or send through campus mail to US Rewards and Recognition, 7 New South, Office of the VP

Background

Diversity and inclusion are at the core of Princeton University's educational mission.

"Princetonians have powerful reasons to care deeply about the diversity of the University community. Only by drawing the best talent from every sector of society can we achieve the scholarly and educational excellence to which we aspire." —President Christopher Eisgruber, Statement on the Trustee Diversity Report

The D&I Spirit Award is presented to a University Services staff member for his or her exemplary commitment to diversity and inclusion within University Services and the University community.

Selection

Award winners will meet the general requirements (see General Guidelines) and be selected based on the committee's review of Part II: About the Nominee on the nomination form.

Award

Award winners will receive a monetary award of $1,500 and a commemorative plaque, which will be presented at the annual Rewards and Recognition event. D&I Spirit Award recipients may not be considered for a second D&I Spirit Award within a five-year period. Winners are eligible to be nominated for awards in different categories. Please note that all monetary awards are subject to taxes and dollar amounts are subject to change each year.

Nomination Process

To nominate a colleague for the D&I Spirit Award, please complete PART I through PART III.
